POLITICAL TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The position of the Cabinet on the political issue since the New York nominations were made, is a matter of considerable importance, and is variously construed. Probably none but SCHOFIELD is for Grant and Colfax, and that Wallen dislikes them is not doubted. Of course, Seymour and Blair are not to be supported by any member of the Cabinet, but that Wallen dislikes Seymour as much as he does Grant is not believed. He does not seem to be a man who can conceal his feelings, and most persons believe if he was not afraid of losing his place he would openly denounce Seymour. He don't seem to be out of the Cabinet until forced to do so by duress from the President, that his resignation would be accepted by Johnson, and that he would be appointed to some foreign mission. By one's acts is to be judged, and Wallen's acts indicate that he will not resign. He don't seem to be a man who would be willing to lose even a year's salary, and he don't seem to be a man who would be willing to lose his place. Besides, he has not the New Yorkers, and they left him long to run Chase in 1864.

Murder and Attempted Suicide.

A letter received here gives an account of a murder committed at Bellefonte, Pa., on the 9th, a general manager, Robert Fisher, of the Bellefonte Iron Works, shot and killed Col. Thomas Fearon, a prominent citizen of that place, and then attempted to commit suicide by shooting himself in the head. Fisher is in jail awaiting his trial. Fearon was a man of wealth, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. Fisher was also a man of wealth, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. The murder was committed in the presence of a number of persons, and there is no doubt as to the guilt of Fisher.
